EXPLORE THE WORLD ONE ADVENTURE AT A TIME

Espiritu Santo, Vanuatu

TURTLE BAY LODGE 3*

Espiritu Santo, Vanuatu's largest island north of Efate, is just a 45-minute flight from Port Vila. It is an untouched paradise of white sand beaches and shimmering coral reefs. Add to this, the cultural side of the Ni-Vanuatu people with their traditional villages, arts, crafts and long-held customs. Adventure seekers can hike to mysterious caves to swim in refreshing water holes, while divers and snorkellers can explore an underwater world of World War II shipwrecks, colourful coral and tropical fish.

Turtle Bay Lodge is a highly rated 3* property right on the beach with comfortable accommodation, all water sports, pool, restaurant with ocean view and excellent dining.

For an exciting excursion into nature, you can paddle a kayak from Turtle Bay Lodge up river through untouched bush to the Malevulu Blue Hole. Single and double kayaks are available and a fee is charged to use them outside the resort. Road buggies (2 and 4 seater) and quad bikes are for hire from the resort. A certified Padi Dive centre is located onsite.

Accommodation: The resort has 14 ocean front ensuite double and family rooms. Family Rooms have two rooms, one with Queen bed and another with bunk beds and lounge area, plus a large 32sqm verandahs. The Family Rooms have ceiling fans with the exception of the Poolside Family Room which has air-conditioning in the master bedroom.

Five 'marquee' tents with queen beds, ensuites and air conditioning provide a glamping experience in a luxury tent.

All other rooms have ceiling fans, ensuites, tea and coffee making facilities plus a mini fridge.
